

SEATTLE
SYMPHONY

GERARD SCHWARZ, MUSIC DIRECTOR

Summer Sings 2010

at Benaroya Hall

Join Seattle Symphony Chorale, the official chorus of Seattle Symphony, for three open reading sessions, featuring major choral works led by talented local conductors. PLUS! Live accompaniment by the Watjen Concert Organ.

Monday, July 26, at 7pm

Handel's Dixit Dominus

Conductor: Doug Fullington, Artistic Director of the Tudor Choir

Monday, August 2, at 7pm

Mendelssohn's Elijah

Conductor: Karen P. Thomas, Artistic Director of Seattle Pro Musica

Monday, August 9, at 7pm

Bernstein's Chichester Psalms

Conductor: Joseph Crnko, Seattle Symphony Associate Conductor for Choral Activities, Music Director of Northwest Choirs

$10 tickets / cash or check only at the door

$6 parking in Benaroya Hall garage

No RSVP necessary

Benaroya Hall / Onstage in the S. Mark Taper Foundation Auditorium
(First 300 to arrive are seated onstage)

Enter through the Artists Entrance (off of 2nd Avenue, just south of garage entrance)