

SEATTLE SYMPHONY

GERARD SCHWARZ, MUSIC DIRECTOR

Summer Sings '11

Join Seattle Symphony Chorale, the official chorus of Seattle Symphony, for four open reading sessions, featuring major choral works led by talented local conductors.

Brahms' Requiem

MONDAY, JULY 11, 2011, 7-9:30PM | SWEDISH CULTURAL CENTER

Conductor: Karen P. Thomas, Artistic Director of Seattle Pro Musica

Bach's Magnificat

MONDAY, JULY 18, 2011, 7-9:30PM | SWEDISH CULTURAL CENTER

Conductor: Geoffrey Boers, Director of Choral Activities at the University of Washington

Poulenc & Vivaldi: Gloria

MONDAY, JULY 25, 2011, 7-9:30PM | SWEDISH CULTURAL CENTER

Conductor: Adam Stern, Music Director of Seattle Philharmonic Orchestra

Orff's Carmina burana

MONDAY, AUGUST 1, 7-9:30PM | BENAROYA HALL

Conductor: Joseph Crnko, Seattle Symphony Associate Conductor for Choral Activities, Music Director of Northwest Choirs

Enter through Artists Entrance (south of garage entrance).

First 300 to arrive are seated onstage.

$10 tickets / cash or check only at the door

No RSVP necessary / Limited scores available

Parking: Free at Swedish Cultural Center (1920 Dexter Ave. N)

$6 in Benaroya Hall garage (2nd Ave. & Union St.)